

Arizona Constitution Course

West-MEC Professional Development is partnering with Glendale Community College to offer the 1 credit Arizona Constitution course (POS 221) that is required for teacher certification. To earn the required college credit for Arizona Constitution you must attend the following sessions and complete all tests and assignments.

The required course sessions will be conducted at and on the following dates/times:

West-MEC Corporate Building
5487 North 99th Ave.
Glendale, AZ 85305

Friday, March 4, 2016

3:30-9:30

Saturday, March 5, 2016

8-4

To earn the credit, you must attend both days. During the course sessions, you will be engaging in activities, completing assignments, and taking quizzes to demonstrate that you have successfully met the college competencies.

The text, Understanding Arizona Constitution 2nd edition is optional, but highly recommended.
It can be obtained on Amazon for less than $10 through Amazon

<http://www.amazon.com/Understanding-Arizona-Constitution-Second-Edition/dp/0816529442>

To earn the credit and to be able to acquire the transcript you will need for your teacher certification, you must officially enroll with West-MEC (PD Circle) and through Glendale Community College.

You will not pay any money to West-MEC (data information only). You will be paying your tuition and fees directly Glendale Community College. ($84 per credit and $15 registration fee, and a $2 special fee)

To enroll in the Glendale Community College course:

Register on line at: <http://www2.gccaz.edu/step-1-create-your-student-account>

Register by phone: Call (623) 845-3333

Register on-site: Glendale Community College student services building

Register for: POS 221 Arizona Constitution      Section: 33971

Start date: March 4, 2016      Session: Spring 2016

Note: If you are new to the Maricopa Community College system, you will be given a MEID student number when you register. If you already have a MEID, please provide that number when you register with GCC.

Please write your MEID number down, as you will need it to log into your GCC class site.

After you are officially registered with Glendale Community College, you will receive a syllabus and additional information regarding the class.

If you need additional information or have any questions, you may contact Michele Bush at michele.bush@west-mec.org